Vienna, May 14.

YEsterday, being her Imperial Majesty's and the Archdutchess Marie Christine's Birth-day, there was a grand Appearance at Court, a publick Dinner for the Imperial Family, with another Table for One Hundred and Thirty Persons, and a Drawing-Room in the Evening. The Ambassadors, Foreign Ministers, and Principal Nobility went as usual to pay their Compliments on this Occasion to the Emperor, and the Rest of the Imperial Family, at Schonbrun.

Berlin, May 24. On the 21st, 22d, and 23d Instant, the King of Prussia reviewed, in the Plain of Templehoff, about an English Mile distant from hence, a Body of Twenty-five Thousand Men. Each Day they performed different Military Evolutions and Manœuvres; and his Prussian Majesty, after the Review was over, was pleased to express to the General Officers his entire Satisfaction, as well with the noble Appearance the Troops made, as with the Dexterity with which they went through these Exercises.

Yesterday in the Afternoon the King of Prussia went from this Place to Charlottenbourg; and To-morrow Morning he sets out from thence for Custrin and Stargard in Pomerania, in order to review the Troops assembled at those Places.

The several Regiments that arrived in this Capital last Tuesday, to assist at the Review, marched from hence very early this Morning for their respective Garrisons.

St. James's, June 3.

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Pringle, of Pall-Mall in the Parish of St. James, Westminster, Doctor of Physick, and to the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great Britain.

The King has been pleased to grant unto William East, of Hall-Place in the County of Berks, Esq; and to the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great-Britain.

Custom-house, London, May 13, 1766.

Whereas on Thursday the 1st Day of this Instant May, John Pankhurst and John Newington, Riding Officers of the Customs, stationed at Rottendean and Brighthelmstone in the County of Sussex, made Seizure of about Thirty hundred Pounds Weight of Tea, which was concealed in a Wood near a Place called Warninglin, in the Parish of Slaugham in the said County of Sussex; which said Tea they endeavoured to secure, and were conveying the same to the Custom-house at Shoreham, when a Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of Twelve or thereabouts, armed with large Clubs and other offensive Weapons, by Force and Violence, rescued from the said Officers all the said Tea, except Eleven Oil-Skin Bags, containing about 247 lb. Weight, which they carried and conveyed away.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring these Offenders to Justice, do hereby give Notice, That if any Person or Persons will discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, such Person or Persons will be intitled to the Reward of Fifty Pounds for each Person so apprehended; to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs on Conviction.

And if any of the said Offender or Offenders shall, within Three Months after the said 1st Day of this Instant May, discover two or more of his or their Accomplices, so as two of them at least be convicted of such Offence, the Offender or Offenders making such Discovery will be intitled to the like Reward of Fifty Pounds for every such Offender so discovered and convicted, and will also be acquitted and discharged from his or their Offence.
